Director of Public Health, Julie VanArsdalen

Narcan Trainings were held on November 7, 2023, at Elmwood Street School and on November 8, 2023 at Shaw School. Julie and Jackie along with Chief Lewos, Lt. McFaul and members of the MPD were all present. Both school presentations went very well and had a good number in attendance. Once the training session was over, Narcan was provided to all participants. Narcan training will be at Millbury High School on November 14, 2023.

Advertising for a Public Hearing for updated Tattoo Regulations will be placed in the newspaper and will be discussed at our BOH meeting in January 2024.

The storage trailer has limited supplies inside and is located at the Sewer Department on Providence Street.

On November 7, 2023, Board of Health members and Julie conducted a permit/sticker check at the WinWaste facility. A limited number of haulers did not have a valid permit/sticker. The haulers that did not have a valid permit/sticker were instructed to contact the BOH office and were provided with the bylaw and an application.

Public Health Nurse Update:

Department Update: Julie and Jackie were present at the Narcan Trainings. Jackie is working on permits for the upcoming Chain of Lights that will take place on December 3, 2023. There were two (2) Flu Clinics held over the last two weeks.

New/Old Business: None

Next Meeting: Next Meeting 12-06-2023

Motion to Adjourn at 3:35 PM: Ron Marlborough made a motion to Adjourn. Second by Ron Marlborough. All in Favor. Approved.
