Town Meeting Debrief: Jeff Raymond noted that some passed and some did not. Jeff Raymond apologized for some of the issues in town detracting from the ability of us to pass some of the more controversial aspects.

Paul Concemi noted that the committee vetted the entire thing, and expressed frustration that people waited until town meeting to lodge complaints and concerns. He also expressed dismay at some of the personal attacks levied at the meeting.

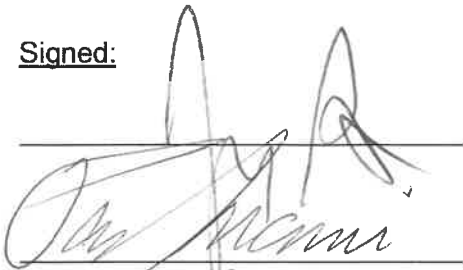

Charles Cooper was "disappointed" in the outcome of the "Select Board" proposal.

Jeff Raymond noted that the work the committee has done is of record and even if it didn't pass, it set a foundation for future work.

The committee cannot dissolve until the election in spring 2023. After some minor procedural discussion about possible reconsideration, the committee moved on and Jeff Raymond noted that the committee is on hiatus until post-election.
